

Dec. 26, 1966

Dear Harold,

Congratulations on your second book! And thank you for the copy you sent me. I had already purchased one, so I sent it to Marguerite Oswald, who complains so bitterly of financial stridency.

I haven't been able to read WWII carefully yet because of the workload of the General Assembly (I even had to bring work home to do during the 4 days off for Xmas). I know that Jones Harris was most enthusiastic about it, and he is not readily moved to enthusiasm! I gather that he phoned you to express his admiration. I'd love to hear about your trip to the West Coast but I'm sure you are busier than ever, as I am too.

Again, Congratulations to you and to your wife, who must have contributed greatly to your second opus, and all good wishes.

Sylvia